- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

etc

- a) select one of the above as your "doctrine"
- b) list the key exegetical questions you would need answering before proceeding with this as the "doctrine"
- c) what objections to your doctrine may need "clearing" before you go further ?
- d) move by "analysis and comparison" (what's inside this statement which needs defining and distinguishing and what's outside this statement which associates with it or explains it ?)

e) think of 2 examples each of

i) Use for Examination

ii) Use for Comfort

iii) Use for Exhortation

f) take just one of the six uses above and apply it to at least 5 sorts of hearers:
